

One Hundred Third Congress
of the United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-three

Concurrent Resolution

Whereas informed research on the United States Congress depends heavily on access to the office files, personal papers, oral history interview transcripts, and associated memorabilia of its former members;

Whereas the Senate in 1983 and the House of Representatives in 1988 have published well-received guides to these materials; and

Whereas thousands of new entries have been added to the Senate's 1983 edition and supplies of this award-winning reference guide have been exhausted: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That there shall be printed as a Senate document, the book entitled "Guide to Research Collections of Former United States Senators" prepared by the Senate Historical Office under the supervision of the Secretary of the Senate.

SEC. 2. Such document shall include illustrations, and shall be in such style, form, manner, and binding as directed by the Joint Committee on Printing after consultation with the Secretary of the Senate.

S. Con. Res. 5—2

SEC. 3. In addition to the usual number, there shall be printed for the use of the Office of the Secretary of the Senate the lesser of—

- (1) 5,000 copies of the document; or
- (2) such number of copies of the document as does not exceed a total production and printing cost of $83,425.

Attest:

Secretary of the Senate.

Attest:

Clerk of the House of Representatives.
